PRESENTER BIOGRAPHIES:

Bill Johnson

Bill has speaking and leadership experience that stretches over a decade, and his messages have reached people all across North America. Different from most other speakers, Bill doesn't focus on what "leaders" or "the best" do or don't do. He presents what everyone can do and how to do them. Using audience participation, Bill's message is that, "Before you do something great, you must DO SOMETHING."

Opening night entertainment: Deadfield

Hailing from Redfield, South Dakota, Deadfield is a band featuring former NLAB member Chris Shine on the drums. Deadfield has their own CD and has played numerous venues in the upper Midwest.

Mike Domitrz / Can I Kiss You?

Mike is an award-winning author, publisher, speaker and founder of the Date Safe project, an organization focused on the topics of sexual assault and healthy relationships. Mike is speaking at the conference as a result of a collaboration between NL SADD and CAWS ND. Mike has become one of the most respected and prolific writers/producers of materials addressing healthy dating, consent, sexual decision-making, bystander intervention, sexual assault awareness and supporting sexual assault survivors. Mike will provide a keynote presentation followed by an hour-long session with the students.

Abigail Pogatshnik

Abby is a former NL SADD Student of the year and the current Miss North Dakota, USA!

IMPORTANT CONFERENCE NOTES:

Chapters are encouraged to help promote the circus theme in whatever way that may entail. Have fun with it! On opening night during audience participation, individuals with certain "abilities" may be asked to share what makes them unique and part of life's "circus." 😊

Attire: Dress will be casual, and attendees will be encouraged to wear their conference tee shirts on Monday.

Registration Fee: $100 per person (student and adult) for individuals who have paid membership fees and advisors of chapters who have paid membership fees. Registration fee includes supper on Sunday evening, breakfast and lunch on Monday, a conference tee shirt, and other materials. For individuals/chapters who have not paid membership fees, the fee is $110.

*Each chapter is responsible for their own hotel accommodations and costs. Hotel information and the link to the online registration is on the next page.

SADD Store: As usual, we will have our SADD Store there, so you can buy your NL SADD-related clothing and other items, many at clearance prices! Some of our presenters will have merchandise for sale at the store, too.
